

5-1
7, 24-69

N.O. Crime Probers Hear Wade

State Police Supt. David Wade today testified for an hour and 15 minutes in the Orleans Parish Grand Jury's probe of organized crime here.

Wade entered the jury room about 10 a.m. and appeared again at 11:15 to depart. He had no comment for newsmen.

Scheduled to re-appear before the jury today was Aaron M. Kohn, managing director of the Metropolitan Crime Commission.

KOHN WAS ONE of several witnesses who appeared last Thursday before the Grand Jury as it continued to probe charges of organized crime infiltrating legitimate businesses here.

Kohn was the only witness called back before the jury.

Others who testified last week were Detective David Kent of the police intelligence division; Wallace Moll, chief of the federal Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division here, and Ross Scaccia, a candidate for district attorney and a former assistant DA.

THE INVESTIGATION of organized crime here heated in recent months when the Mayor's Committee on Crime Delinquency, headed by attorney Ivor Trapolin, charged organized crime was a flourishing business here and was threatening to make inroads into legitimate commerce.

Mayor Victor H. Schiro disbanded Trapolin's committee after it completed a report on organized crime.